I just wanted to say "thank you" for a well planned Baseball Spring Training Day. Dylan had a great time this morning and hasn't stopped practicing since he came home this afternoon. We were quite surprised to get the nice baseball bag filled with some baseball equipment to get him started. Dylan has been wearing his hat, t-shirt, glove, sweatbands and medal for over 6 hours now. He has been practicing everything he learned today, even the little cheer his group/"team" did, "GO PIRATES!" He is already planning on sleeping with his new attire. :) Dylan's confidence is through the roof right now, thank you for making my son's weekend! The impact you are making on the athletes' lives, not to mention the dozens of volunteers who are learning compassion and acceptance is priceless and simply amazing!

Thank you for all of your hard work and dedication to making a difference in the lives of everyone around you!

ONE WEEK LATER:

March 19, 2012

Dylan's excitement hasn't lessened any, which is awesome! :) Dylan has been practicing baseball since the baseball clinic and has been non-stop talking about his "Pirates" team. Dylan has been wearing his red AHA baseball cap with pride, he has his baseball stance down to a science and surprisingly has a good hit, especially for a 6-year-old!

Thanks again for everything!
